Noisy Church
today
at 4.00pm for pre-school
aged children and their families.

Prayer for the week:

Gracious Father,
You gave up your Son
out of love for the world:
lead us to ponder the mysteries of his passion,
that we may know eternal peace through the shedding of our Saviour's blood,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Thoughts for the week:

What is the "extraordinary"? It is the love of Jesus Christ himself, love that goes to the cross in suffering obedience.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

A woman's heart should be so close to God that a man should have to chase Him to find her.

C.S. Lewis

This morning, the Boulders (12-18 yrs) are gardening! They have been awarded a council grant from "South Wirral in Bloom" and are planting up 4 recycled wooden troughs, made by Men in Sheds, with flowering herbs and shrubs which will look lovely and attract insects. Gardening advice is from our volunteer gardener Duncan. A truly collaborative project to enhance our grounds and benefit our environment.

Friday 12th April 7-9pm, Boulders' social - making the Easter Garden for display in the community centre entrance.

Please be sure to return your Electoral roll forms today, or you will miss the deadline.

The first reading is from Philippians 3.4b-14 (NIV)

If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee, as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless. But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ - the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his suffering, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brother, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead. I press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenwards in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ from John 12:1-8 (NIV)

Glory to you, O Lord.

Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived in Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honour. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected. Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages. He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

"Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me."

This is the gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Sidespersons' rota - once again the time has come around for the renewal of the rota. We would be grateful for those already on the rota to remain so and for anyone interested in joining to contact Gary Shaw.
